New Executive Director!

We have very exciting news for the London Muslim Community. It is with great pleasure to announce the appointment of Ali Jomaa to the role of Executive Director of the London Muslim Mosque.

As you all know this organization has grown and evolved dramatically over the last 15-20 years and the need for an executive director was recognized a few years back and we are pleased to have found an excellent fit for this position.

Ali Jomaa, as many of you know, is a son of this great community and he brings a wealth of skills, experience and knowledge that is greatly needed to move this organization forward.
